

INFORMATION given to DATA SUBJECT (SUPPLIER) in pursuance of sec. 13 of D.lgs. 196/03

We desire to inform you that Italian Legislative Decree number 196 of 30 June 2003 (Privacy Code) concerns protection of individual and other entities with regard to the processing of personal data.

With respect to underlined decree, data processing realized as a consequence of all relationships and services requested by Reply S.p.A. or by its subsidiaries will be done with respect to principles of fairness, lawfulness, transparency and for the safeguard of your confidentiality and your rights.

Therefore, in pursuance of Section 13 of Privacy Code, we provides you following information:

1. All personal data communicated to Reply S.p.A. will be treated with respect to restrictions and aims reported in this document. In particular:
 - a) for the fulfilment of present contractual relationships,
 - b) for legal and tax fulfilments related to these contractual relationships,
 - c) to accomplish an efficient marketing management.
2. Your personal data processing is realized by means of information, telematics and manual systems, with rules strictly correlated to our aims, developed in any case to ensure data security and always in compliance with duties of law in force.
3. Personal data are communicated directly from data subjects or external parties or they are taken from public registries. Personal data collection is necessary to carry out every present contractual relationship, for fulfilment of legal obligations and for indicated aims. For these reasons, in the event that necessary data are not communicated or data subject refuses to sign the permission for data processing, contractual agreement could not be fully accomplished. For this reason, in order to process your personal data, we consider that a formalization of a contract/order constitutes also an agreement for data processing.
4. Maintaining the importance of legal and contractual obligations, our Company must be considered free to communicate your personal data, collected or processed by us, to societies belonging to Reply Group, only for specified aims.
5. Data controller of these processing is the legal representative of Reply S.p.A., with headquarters in Turin, Corso Francia n. 110.
6. At any time you can exploit your rights towards processing data controller, in pursuance of Section 7 of the Privacy Code (full text at the end of this document), sending written communication to the data controller legal headquarters. We underline in particular that in our headquarters is available a refreshed list of third parties that are involved in every data processing as "data controllers" or "data processors".

Legislative Decree n.196/2003.
